

JUST A MINUTE

Outline of Presentation

Introduction to JAM

Strategy for Acing JAM

Common Mistakes that must be Avoided

Qualities Checked

Tips to be Followed in JAM

Topics for JAM and Extempore

Introduction to JAM

JAM is a mini-version of Extempore!!

JAM- Just a Minute

You need to jump off a cliff and develop your wings on the way down

One minute speech that is carried out without any preparation

Improves speaking skills and smartness

Lets you assess yourself on your command over the language, managing skills, convincing skills etc.

Strategy for Acing JAM

G – Gather the attention of your audience

A – Acknowledge the audience

M – Make a response to questions

E – Example to support your answer

Common Mistakes that must be Avoided

Repeating the topic

Acknowledging the audience first

Saying "That's a good Topic"

Being a deer in the highlights (Standing there clueless and acting oblivious)

Failure to make eye-contact with the audience

Qualities Checked

Communication Skills

Ability to Think Logically

Overall Presentation Skills(Body
Language, Confidence, Eye-
Contact etc.)

Ability to think off the feet

Idea Generation

Prioritizing and sequencing of ideas to display logical thinking

Ability to connect with the panel

Articulation

Tips to be Followed in JAM

Grammatical mistakes to be curtailed to 5% at the max

Use simple sentences using simple present, simple past, simple future, present perfect tenses more often

Make use of Modals (common ones: Can, Should, Could, Would)

Do not repeat your ideas

Avoid using AND (the use makes the sentences lengthier)

Keep the content simple

Never Use negative words

Tips to be Followed in JAM

Topics for JAM and Extempore

What if human beings had tails!

What do you see when you close your eyes?

Which is your Favorite season, Summers or Winters, why?

What is the one secret that you don't want to share with anybody!

What is the one thing that you will like to improve about yourself.

Lie about any of the following: "Politicians are not honest", "I've never cheated in an exam", "I am not an alien".

The celebrity you'll like to get married to.

Choose between a Foolish friend or an intelligent enemy.

Do you think hard work guarantees Success?

The fear that you'll like to overcome and why?

Topics for JAM and Extempore

IPL cricket is not real cricket

Corporate Social Responsibility

Capital Punishment for rapists

Rahul Gandhi Vs Narendra Modi

Supreme Court order on playing National Anthem in Cinema Halls

What can PM Modi do to impose lockdown strictly?

Corruption in India

The place of religion in your life

Cheap Labor in India

Education and wisdom

